

ANDREW JACKSON STATE OFFICE BUILDING

↶ Back to list view

Application range

Office

Type

Reference

As part of the State of Tennessee's PROJECT T3 program, which aimed to consolidate state services into state-owned, upgraded projects, the Andrew Jackson State Office Building was renovated in 2015 to improve the buildings mechanical system and interior space to better serve employees and reduce energy consumption and costs.

The mechanical system improvements included DID632 Active Chilled Beams in offices, open spaces and conference rooms.

Construction Team

Owner: State of Tennessee

Architect / Engineer: HFR Design, Inc.

TROX USA, Inc.

4305 Settingdown Circle
Cumming
Georgia 30028

Online-Services

Service-Hotlines

Sales USA and technical consulting